DAY EXCURSIONS FROM JOHANNESBURG

TOUR DESCRIPTIONS 2008/9

Soweto

Lunch – not included

JDT01

Experience the turbulent history and diversity of the people and cultures in the heart of Soweto, now more than a hundred years old. This affluent hub for development projects and tourism open their doors to the world in an attempt to showcase its vibrant social life, renowned for its music and arts. Witness the revolution of a township that rose out of ashes and Gold dust.

Johannesburg

Lunch – not included

JDT02

Ah, Egoli, the beloved “City of Gold” and its tranquil suburbs. A monument of greed, lust for power and exploitation of the masses. See how a city transformed from all that was sordid into the financial capital of Africa. It has become our welcome centre to the world, a city of hopes and dreams, more importantly, home to us all

Johannesburg & Soweto

Lunch – not included

JDT03

Experience the turbulent history and diversity of the people and cultures in the heart of Soweto, now more than a hundred years old. See how Johannesburg transformed from all that was sordid into the financial capital of Africa. Here we combine the experience of where the workers who built this city came from and how their efforts paid off

Apartheid Museum

Lunch – not included

JDT04

Be shocked and horrified by the depth of racial segregation that took place just before the turn of the century in pre-democratic South Africa. Relive the sad tale of white (minority) supremacy and black (majority) oppression uniquely captured within the walls of this museum. This informative experience will leave the visitor in awe of the transformation of a truly diverse nation

Soweto & Apartheid Museum

Pretoria

Lunch – not included

JDT09

Enjoy a tour of the administrative capital of South Africa. Pretoria / Tshwane lies about 50 km north of Johannesburg. The population, just under a million, consists mainly of officials, and in Pretoria life goes at a much slower pace than in the hectic Johannesburg. It is quite easy for the visitor to find his or her way through the city, which is laid out like a chess board. Pretoria lies 1367 m above sea level, which makes it about 400 m lower than Johannesburg. It is surrounded by protecting mountains and home to the magnificent Union Buildings

Cullinan Diamond Mine

Lunch – not included

JDT10

Diamonds are a girl’s best friend? Sure, but also a man’s if you consider the long term benefits such a small and precious stone can bring. Visit the operational Cullinan Diamond mine and fully appreciate all the blood, sweat and tears it takes to produce the little (or big) gems we hold so dear. Maybe you could even “frost” your lady companion at one of their stores

Hot-Air Ballooning Excursion

Breakfast – included

JDT12

Enjoy a magical ride on the wind in a hot-air balloon near the Magaliesberg Mountains. A romantic ride in this wicker basket will thrill your senses and make you feel alive with great memories to cherish for years to come. Enjoy a hearty English breakfast and relax in the morning sun. (This experience is weather permitted)

Shopping Safari

Lunch – not included

JDT13

Savour the excitement of being whisked around in a luxury, air-conditioned vehicle all day, whilst sampling all the wares on offer at some of South Africa's best shopping complexes and malls. When only the best will do or if you need to get your hands on the perfect gift for loved ones "back home", this is surely the ultimate in shopping experiences. So pack your Jimmy Choo's and hubby's Platinum Amex, Diner's, MasterCard or Visa and join the fun

Maropeng, Cradle of Mankind

Lunch – not included

JDT14

Who's your Daddy? This is the catch phrase used by the brand new State of the Art Maropeng Museum, a few minutes drive from the Sterkfontein caves. A visit to the museum takes you on an incredible journey back in time, literally millions of years. Its main attraction is an underground lake where you can experience the elements first hand in a controlled environment. Evolution is the key to this magnificent venue...have you evolved? Come find out at Maropeng
